It should be born in mind by our friends in the country that goods can be bought at cheaply in Oregon as Forest City. They may give you an astonishing bargain in some single article, but for many articles it is true that they get more money out of you at Forest City than at Oregon. This they say themselves.
If you don't believe this, S. & R. C.
WATSON, of this place, can prove it to you. Call and see them.

NOTICE.

All orders left with H. MURPHY, at Oregon, for the fast selling and greatly improved family and manufacturing sewing machines—the GROVER & BA-KER—will receive prompt attention.
Every machine warranted, and instructions given free.

M. STILSON,
115 North Fourth Street,
Traveling Agent.

ACCIDENT.

An accident befel Mr. JAS. H. LEAN, who lives at the R.R. PATTERSON place, on Saturday morning last, which caused him the loss of an arm. He was attending a threshing machine, which was in operation at Mr. ASHWORTH's on the time referred to, when, by some means, his arm was caught by the side-gear of the cylinder and crushed and mangled about mid-way between the elbow and wrist in a terrible manner. The shattered limb was amputated about three inches below the elbow, Saturday evening, by Dr. M. SAVILLE, assisted by Dr. D. W. REID, of this city, and the patient is doing well.

Song Makers of the North-west Chicago, Ill. & Co. Published monthly.

The publishers have furnished us with a copy of the above named paper, which we find contains 16 pages, and in addition an extra for advertising of the same size. It is well made up, with articles on the music, musicians, and musical societies of the day, besides containing a number of new compositions for the voice and instrument. We are desirably pleased with it—would thank the publishers to send regularly.

Nursing and Shadow in New York, by Mrs. Anna Smith. J. B. Burr & Co., Market, Conn.

We have a few specimen pages and a table of contents of this forth-coming work, from an examination of which we are led to believe it will be one of the most intensely interesting books of the times. It is a book which should properly be ready by everybody, and cannot but profit its readers. We await its issue impatiently. It will be sold by subscription only. Agents are invited in every county and town to canvass for it.
For full particulars and terms, address the publishers, J. B. Burr & Co., 18 Asylum street, Hartford, Connecticut.

PUBLISHERS of newspapers are noticed that a firm styled Harper, Wilson Co., of New York, are “dead beats.” They send out ads, and after they are inserted you never hear from them.
Sorry to acknowledge we were deceived by them.
